MARK

Our Words

As we close this chapter, let's not forget one we've created. Our time here isn't just about memories, but about the we've left. As we move forward, let's carry with us the lessons learned and the friendships made. May our inspire others to aim high and make their mark. Goodbye for now, but our legacy lives on in the hearts we've touched and the we've inspired.

Leaving a LEGACY

As we journeyed through these halls, we dreamed of home, as we had there. We see it's more than just time passed. It's about the we've made. Every laugh, tear, and dream has left a legacy. Let's flip through our memories, remembering the days we lived and the we've had. Our legacy here will always be a part of this place, a testament to who we are and what we've accomplished.
